Monday Missions

Rusty and Adriane Riddick are serving as our missionaries in Sierra Leone. Let's be sure to pray for them this week.

Being raised on the mission field in Cameroon, Russell (Rusty) Riddick has a love and passion for the people of Africa. In 1993, he married Adriane, who also had a call to missions. Months after they married, they went to Cameroon, where they served as AIMers and later were appointed Intermediate Missionaries. During this time, Russell worked with the evangelistic team and served as the Director of Evangelism, while Adriane taught in the Bible school and worked in the print shop. They assisted in the ground work of sending the first regional missionary from Africa, Rev. Peter Mua, to Equatorial Guinea. Due to sickness and health, they returned to the United States where they continued in ministry, knowing that they would eventually return to the mission field. The undeniable call of God directed them back to Global Missions and in 2010 they were appointed missionaries to Cameroon. During their term in Cameroon, Russell served on the Cameroon general board, managed church building projects, and planted a church in Douala, a city of over 2.5 million souls. The church still continues to grow and experience revival!

In 2016, Russell and Adriane answered their long felt burden and calling to the country of Sierra Leone. Upon their return, they will continue their missionary work, reaching, teaching and evangelizing the harvest of souls in Sierra Leone.

Keep Yourselves

17 But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 how they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts.

19 These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,

21 keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And on some have compassion, making a distinction;

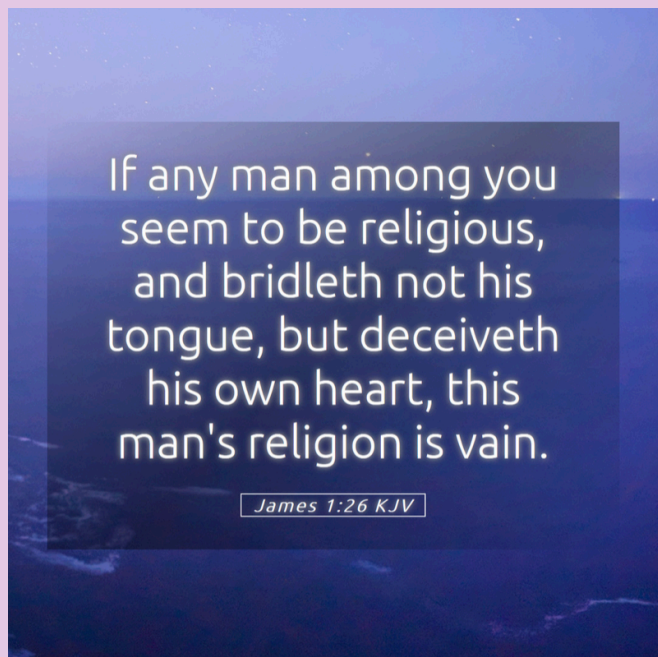

23 but others save with fear, pulling [them] out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh. — Jude 1:17-23 NKJV

Memory Verse

“Keep your heart with all diligence, For out of it spring the issues of life.”

—Proverbs 4:23 NKJV

A Closer Look

— James 1:25-27 AMPC

“But he who looks carefully into the faultless law, the law of liberty, and is faithful to it and perseveres in looking into it, being not a heedless listener who forgets but an active doer who obeys, he shall be blessed in his doing (his life of obedience).

If anyone thinks himself to be religious (piously observant of the external duties of his faith) and does not bridle his tongue but deludes his own heart, this person's religious service is worthless (futile, barren).

External religious worship [religion as it is expressed in outward acts] that is pure and unblemished in the sight of God the Father is this: to visit and help and care for the orphans and widows in their affliction and need, and to keep oneself unspotted and uncontaminated from the world.”
